

2011 – WITHER MONEY, NO MORE

Wither Money, confidence a bore
 Fools rush in to print some more.
 Now Euro woes beset the best
 No hope Dollars for the rest.
 Obama impotent, Tea Party awake
 And budgets nearly set to break.
 Trans Canada's Keystone, a political foil
 Enbridge flexes to deliver the oil.
 Christie's first wow, her HST slips
 Pre-sales caught doing the splits.
 Our worldly City now number two
 And rioters meekly chased with a shoo.
 Gregor, Ho-hum survives the foray
 And NDP quietly awaits its day.
 Wall Street awake, "Occupy" a tip

Greed is challenged by tent-city hip.
 Amid the turmoil money is cheap
 And veterans pause, if only to weep.
 Real estate prices nudge up to the sky
 And realtors say it's still time to buy!
 Week-end sell-outs a contrarian event
 Whoever said the money was spent?
 Deliver some more the homeless implore
 And a Vision prophesies a free front door.
 Pro-sports dry, gambling a spoof
 But guess whose taxes carry the roof.
 So now it's time to stop the score
 And give our charities even more.
